Town of Lisbon
Selectmen's Meeting Minutes
Meeting: July 3, 2012

Selectmen Present: Ruth Robar (RAR), Michael Carver (MC), Peter Nightingale (PN)
Administrative Assistant: Barbara Menchin

RAR re-opened the meeting at 1:00 pm

SELECTMEN MATTERS:

The Board discussed the refinancing of the USDA Rural Development loans. There will be a public hearing on the refinance on July 16, 2012 at the regular Board of Selectmen's meeting.

The Board discussed who would be checking the emails from the former Town Administrator's office.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT:

BM informed the Board that Mr. Kevin Clement (Department of Public Works) requested working on the 4th of July and take the holiday on Friday to expedite the roadwork he had. The Board approved.

DEPARTMENT HEAD: Fred Garofalo (Lisbon/Lyman/Landaff Recycling Center)

The Board asked FG to make a list of all assets at the Recycling Center that would be over $10,000.00.

FG informed the Board that the prices through Casella will be going down next year and that there will be a $5,000.00 donation next year for household waste.

FG told the Board he would need to purchase MSW bags for next year. The cost of the bags in 2010 was $8,000.00.

FG stated he had spoken to Mr. Kevin Clement (Department of Public Works) regarding highway department using crushed glass for the sewer lines around the pipes. The Town of Littleton has a crusher. FG stated he did not know how much Mr. Clement might need but the Board suggested checking with KC to see if this could fit into the paving line.

FG has received bids for doing concrete work in the Recycling Process Storage Building (the main building). Quotes ran from $14,000.00 to $17,500.00. The Board stated that perhaps some funds from this year could be encumbered for next year.

FG spoke to the Board regarding commercial accounts using the scales.

As there was no further business to discuss, PN made a motion to recess, MC 2nd, so voted.

Meeting adjourned 2:30 pm.
